| 3.45 - 5.45 | Charting a way forward: Options for Business Involvement in a Post-MDG Framework           This session will pull together the key themes emerging from the day's discussions and consider the practical implications for the post-2015 agenda. Building on recent work by ODI, it will look in more detail at different options for business engagement in delivering the post-2015 framework. In particular, the question will be how a new framework can help to incentivise business models that combine commercial success with positive socio-economic impacts. Options might include setting targets for how the private sector might contribute to their delivery, finding ways to encourage goal-based partnerships, and companies using their internal key performance indicators to measure their contribution to the new goals. This session will be led by ODI. | Keynote address:           → Hans-Jürgen Beerfeltz, State Secretary of the Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development, Germany Panellists:           → Miguel Pestana, Vice President, Global External Affairs, Unilever           → Dan Mobley, Regional Head of Corporate Affairs for Africa, Standard Chartered           → Brendan Cox, Director of Policy and Advocacy, Save the Children           → Shinichi Iida, Director, Global Issues Cooperation Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Japan Moderator:           → Claire Melamed, Head of Growth, Poverty and Inequality, ODI |
